Rev. Mr. KALE will preach at the 1st Presbyterian Church, to-morrow morning and evening.

JUDGE LOWRY, Candidate for Congress, and HON. A. A. HAMMOND, Candidate for Lieut. Governor, will address our citizens next Saturday evening at 7 o'clock. They will also speak at Hartstown at 1 o'clock P. M. same day.

Congress Adjourned without passing the Army Appropriation Bill—An Extra Session!!

Congress adjourned on Monday last, without making any appropriation for the support of the army. The House attached a proviso to the Army Appropriation Bill, prohibiting the use of any money engaged in preserving the peace and enforcing the laws in Kansas. The Senate struck out the proviso and returned the bill to the House; the House insisted on retaining the proviso—the Senate would not recede—and the hour of adjournment arrived without the bill being passed.

By this treacherous and notorious course of the Kansas shirkers in the House, who sought to prevent the troops from checking their rebellion in Kansas, the country was left without any means for the support of an army. The President immediately issued a proclamation convening an extra session to meet on Thursday last to make the necessary provision for the defence of the country.

This is only another evidence of the incapacity of the fusionists to manage public affairs. Whenever they have a majority, they make a blunder. The result, in this case, will be that the hon. gentlemen will charge and re-charge the people for an extra session, and the people will be forced to pay for the extra session. The fusionists in the House would not discharge the duty they had sworn an oath to perform. We should think this would be sufficient to open the eyes of the public to the folly and danger of placing power in the hands of a party so notoriously wicked.

An erroneous impression has got abroad that the Democrats intend having a procession at this place in two weeks from to-day. There is no such intention; but about the first week of October, we shall have such a gathering of the masses as has never before been witnessed in our parts. So be getting your hickory wagons, your poles, and your banners ready. Mr. Donnan, Mr. Breckinridge, Gen. Cass, and other prominent Democrats will be invited to attend and address the meeting.

TEN CENTS A DAY.—One of the charges made against Mr. Buchanan is that in a speech made in the Senate in 1840 he advocated the reduction of wages of laborers to ten cents a day. This is a libelous calumny has been so often repeated that no respectable man ventures to repeat it. No man believes it. Mr. Buchanan himself emphatically denied it when it was first introduced. There are however some few who still repeat the charge, and we noticed some banners bearing the lie in the fusion procession last Sunday. That our readers may know what Buchanan did say, we publish that portion of his speech on our first page.

By the way the slander originated was this:—Buchanan made a speech in the U. S. Senate on the 22d January, 1840, in which he stated, not the establishment of an exclusive currency, but a reduction in the number of banks—and that those banks ought to be compelled to keep in their vaults a certain proportion of specie compared with their circulation and deposits, or in other words, a proportion of immediate specie means to their immediate responsibilities. To this Hon. John Davis, of Massachusetts, the notorious propensity to lying and trickery, replied that he had been facetiously called John Davis attempted to reply. His feeble arguments, founded upon false premises, directly in the teeth of fact, were not sufficient in an appendix to his published speech he introduced a table showing that in the exclusive metallic countries of Europe, they only receive ten cents a day. The appendix did not show that the average price of labor was ten cents a day, but that in some solitary cases that was the price. Putting this and appendix together the hint was taken and a clamor was raised that the Democrats in favor of reducing the wages to "ten cents a day."

This is the whole history of the slander. It is a libelous lie from beginning to end, and is so often disproved that no person need repeat it without knowing that it is a lie. Any man with such men is useless; let every demagogue who hears the charge repeated, use no other but brand it as it deserves.

COMPANY.—The young men of this city and a fine company last night, and elected a foreman, S. L. Pratt assistant, E. L. Chit Secretary, and C. W. Lewis treasurer. The company will meet again next Thursday, to adopt a constitution and by laws.

Miserable Forgery.—The telegraph, in reporting Mr. Buchanan's response to the resolutions of the New York Democratic Convention, interpolated the word "southern," and makes him say, "the whole southern country will hail this resolution." &c. thus entirely changing the sense of the letter and giving it a sectional character. Mr. Buchanan wrote "the whole country"—not "the whole southern country." The object is obvious and it is another proof of the unfairness of the telegraph reporters, and the miserable fusionist influences which control it.

German Democratic Club.
The German citizens of this place met in Colerick's Hall on Saturday evening last and organized a Democratic Club. The following officers were elected:

President—L. Wolke.
Vice Presidents—C. Muhler, C. Peppenbrink, Marx Graef.
Recording Sec.—H. G. Wagner.
Corresponding Sec.—E. Wilde.
Treasurer—F. Nidlinger.

Executive Committee—H. Baker, H. Niemann, J. Feelling, F. Meyer, J. Lanferty, Dr. Wehmer, A. Weber, B. Trentmann, Charles Baker, J. Wolf, D. Mindermann, —Rosenthal, T. Halstein, —Semon, P. Meyer, J. Ruppel, H. Geiger, Conrad Nill.

The attendance was very large, the spacious hall being literally crammed, and all were animated by generous enthusiasm in the good cause of democracy, and a determination to sustain that party which has always maintained their rights and privileges. The meeting was addressed by Messrs. Randall, Sturgis, Smith, Weber, and others, in appropriate speeches.

After the business was concluded the club formed in procession and marched round the city, loudly cheering as they passed the houses of prominent democrats. D. H. Colerick Esq. responded to the enthusiastic cheers with which he was greeted, in a brief but spirited and happy address, which elicited three more hearty cheers. There were probably from 500 to 600 voters in this procession—a number far exceeding that to be found in the great Fremont demonstration of the afternoon. The latter certainly made a fine display of flags, banners, wagons, horses, ladies, and boys; but in the more essential matter of actual votes this German procession got up at a few minutes notice and without a shilling's expense, outnumbered the Fremonters by at least one to two hundred. It was a glorious exhibition of democratic strength—brute force, as the Times elegantly terms it—and completely destroyed the effect of the afternoon's pageant, in which so much labor and expense had been lavished. The German voters are with us, almost to a man, and cannot be enjined into the ranks of their enemies, either by threats or flattery, or the labors of hireling renegade German speakers. Buchanan and Breckinridge will receive the almost unanimous vote of the German citizens of Allen County.

The spontaneous display of democratic strength by the German club on Saturday night so far eclipsed the Fremont fundango of the afternoon that the leaders of that doomed faction are furious, and heap all manner of abuse upon it and upon those who composed it. The Times especially distinguishes itself in its abuse of the Germans, and we commend its article to the attentive perusal of these few German citizens who have been caught in the toils of fusionism, and intend voting for the fusion candidate for Secretary of State. The old leaven of Know Nothingism and hatred of foreign-born citizens sticks out prominently in every line. The Journal, too, though not so abusive as its co-laborer, also indulges in the most unwarranted and reckless fabrications and misrepresentations. Those composing the procession are styled by the ruffians and other opprobrious epithets, and a stranger to read the accounts would suppose the procession to have been a riotous and tumultuous rabble, rendering night hideous with their yells, and disturbing the peace and order of the city. Nothing can be farther from the truth.—It was a most orderly and well conducted affair, not a drunken man or rowdy was to be found in the ranks; nor was any uproar made, except the hearty cheers uttered at the houses of democrats—and in these respects it will contrast most favorably with the hubbub of the afternoon's exhibition.

These "sweet German accents" may have sounded discordant to the ears of disappointed Fremonters, but we can assure them they were harmonious in the ears of those they were intended for. We hope to hear more of them before the election.

A poor Speculation.—The know nothings here imported a hireling renegade German from New York, named Grube, to address our German citizens last Saturday, and persuade them that niggers were of so much more consequence than themselves, that they ought to vote the Fremont ticket, lend their aid in destroying the rights and privileges the democrats have secured to them, and strive to raise the nigger to an equality with the native born citizens. The Germans could not be brought to see the policy of thus sacrificing themselves, or joining with those who had for the past two or three years, so outraged and insulted them. The columns of abuse and vituperation which had appeared in every number of the Times were too fresh in their memories; and they moreover thought their own rights and liberties of more consequence than Kansas and niggerism. So they wisely stayed away, and left Mr. Grube and his K. N. friends alone in their glory—not 20 Germans went to hear his speech. The Kansas Aid Corruption fund was poorly applied in this case—the laborer was not worthy his hire—and his employers are naturally vexed at their failure. They say the democrats would not let the Germans hear the speech—that they forcibly drove them away. This is but repeating the old calumny that this class of our citizens are driven like cattle to the market. They were not forced away from the speech, but stayed away because they would not countenance a man who had sold himself to the enemy, and proved traitor to the rights of his countrymen. They are free citizens and cannot be driven by any one. Let their calumniators try the experiment of driving and they will soon discover their mistake.

German Paper.—A German paper will be commenced in this city next week, to be called the Fort Wayne Demokrat. The publishers are already here and have brought their press and types with them. The first number will probably appear next Saturday. The Germans ought to give it a liberal support.

GRAND FREMONT DEMONSTRATION.
Mach Cry and Little Wooll!

The Fremont demonstration on Saturday last was rather an imposing exhibition, and reflects credit on its managers. The ladies in horseback and in carriages were a beautiful feature in the performance, and flags, banners, and other paraphernalia showed that neither pains nor expense had been spared in getting it up. In this respect the pageant may be considered perfect; but as a display of strength it was a decided failure, or rather a palpable exhibition of weakness. In the whole procession there was not quite 1200 persons—men, women, boys and girls—of whom about 500 were on horseback, and the remainder in wagons and carriages. And this, too, after a month's unceasing effort and the most lavish expenditure of money. Bills and circulars without number had been distributed far and wide, pressing invitations sent out to neighboring cities and states, and no means left untried to get out a crowd. It fell short at least three-fourths of what had been looked for, and was in reality but a small affair in the eyes of those who had witnessed the immense crowds at the different democratic meetings lately held in this section of the state. Deducting those who came from other counties and from Ohio, there were not much over 400 actual voters in the procession—a number the democrats can beat any night at an hour's notice. The Fremonters got up a very showy exhibition; they are simply supplied with money to effect this; but they fail in one thing—rather an essential one, too—they fall short of men; they have not got them, and their little demonstrations make this deficiency the more apparent.

The democrats have no Kansas Aid funds, nor Mariopos corruption funds to aid them in their efforts, and may not be able to make so gorgeous a display; but in the main essential—the display of voters—we can easily beat them three to one.

In a few weeks the friends of Buchanan and Breckinridge will make a grand demonstration. When that takes place, look out for a display of democratic freemen who design voting for Buchanan and Breckinridge.

Allen County Working Men's Institute.—During these exciting political times, the merits of this institute appear to be overlooked, and many of those for whose benefit it was formed have almost forgotten its existence. The officers, however, have not neglected its interests, and we are happy to inform our readers that the munificent bequest of $500 from the McClure fund has been secured. An excellent selection of books to that amount has been purchased, and may be expected to arrive here in two or three weeks. We would now urge the mechanics and working men of this city to come forward, avail themselves of the golden opportunity offered them, and assume the management and direction of the affairs of an association on which is calculated to do so much for them and so greatly to elevate their mental character and influence.

The election of officers for the ensuing year will be held at the court-house on Friday evening next at 7 o'clock.

BRIDGE DOWN.—The bridge across the canal basin, near Robinson's tannery, gave way on Tuesday last, while Spalding & Roger's band wagon, drawn by 40 horses, was in the act of crossing. Two boats of the bridge gave way, precipitating the wagon and four of the horses into the canal; the remainder of the horses fortunately escaped. Several persons on the bridge were also thrown into the water, but almost miraculously no person was killed or seriously injured. The wagon and horses were got out, much less damaged than might have been expected.

Our bridge are all in a very insecure condition, and unless this accident should induce the authorities to have them thoroughly repaired or rebuilt, we should not be surprised to hear of some fatal catastrophe attending their fall before long.

More Fine Stock for Allen County.—Messrs. F. P. Randall and D. G. Nelson have recently purchased some very fine Cotswold sheep; among them is a two years old buck that took the first premium at the State Fair last fall, as the best buck lamb on exhibition.

These are long woolled sheep, raised chiefly for mutton, but at the same time producing a profitable fleece. They are perhaps the most perfect formed sheep raised, partaking very much of the style and shape of the Durham Cattle, being very broad and square built, straight on the back, with deep chests and fine projecting briskets. They are also hardy and prolific, and cross very finely with the common sheep.

Some splendid fine-woolled sheep were purchased last spring by Messrs. Rudisill and others, all of which will be on exhibition at our County Fair in October, and, with the fine cattle and horses from our and neighboring counties, will render the Fair highly attractive.

Yellow Fever at the New York Quarantine.—Several cases of yellow fever have occurred among the persons employed at the Quarantine Hospital on Staten Island, supposed to have been communicated by contact with sailors suffering from the disease, landed from a vessel from some West India port. Great excitement arose—the quarantine grounds were barricaded, and no person allowed ingress or egress. A mob of sailors broke down the barricades and they have not since been replaced. At the last accounts, no new cases of fever had occurred for several days.

It may be remembered that, last year when the Yellow fever raged at Norfolk and Portsmouth, some physicians familiar with the nature of the epidemic, predicted that it was spreading towards the north, and might probably this year reach New York. If it should the mortality would be appalling. In a city so notoriously filthy and crowded, and containing so many thousands of dissipated and wretched people, the scourge would find abundant food to prey upon and would carry off its victims by hundreds or thousands.

More He's in the Good Cause.—H. S. Knapp, Esq. formerly of the Kalida Venture, and afterwards assistant editor of the Ohio Statesman, has commenced the publication of a democratic paper in Van Wert, Ohio, called The Constitution. Mr. Knapp is a thorough-bred democrat, a writer of great force and ability, and his paper, if we may judge from the number before us, will rank second to none in northern Ohio. Success and long life to Brother Knapp—he has got a sound Constitution, and will live to see his state redeemed from the errors of fusionism.

We accidentally omitted to notice the commencement of this excellent paper in our last.

Rufus Choate for Buchanan.—It will be seen by the telegraphic report that Rufus Choate has written a letter favoring Mr. Buchanan for the Presidency. The High Chamber of Mr. Choate as an able statesman in service in the old Whig party, of which he was one of the brightest ornaments, will make this letter tell more powerfully in the canvass than anything that has yet appeared.

Missouri All Right.—By the telegraph news in another column it will be seen that since the result of the election was known, the Benton democrats have withdrawn their electoral ticket, and will vote the regular Buchanan ticket.—This ensures an overwhelming majority for Buchanan in that state. If they had persevered in running a separate ticket and dividing the democratic vote there might have been some doubt of the result. As it is, Missouri will give 25,000 majority for Buchanan and Breckinridge.

HON. ALFRED P. EDGERTON was nominated for Congress by the democratic convention at Defiance, Ohio, on the 15th inst. We congratulate the democracy of our neighboring Buckeye district on their choice. Mr. Edgerton is worthy of the honor which awaits him, and will faithfully represent the interests of his district. He maintained a high position in Congress during his former term, and was universally esteemed by his fellow members for his numerous good qualities and transcendent abilities. He is deservedly popular in his district, and will be elected by a large majority.

New Trs Snor.—We direct attention to the advertisement of C. & D. Nettelshat & Co. who have opened a Tin and Stove shop in Elkhart's old store, north of H. B. Reed's. They are practical workmen, and will warrant all work they sell. They have on hand an assortment of Stoves from the best foundries in the country, among which will be found some very handsome ones for parlors and sitting-rooms, besides the most approved patterns of cooking stoves. They design selling cheap, and we trust may receive a liberal support.

An Interesting Book.—Bayard Taylor has compiled an interesting work entitled The Encyclopedia of Modern Travel, being a condensed account of all the most celebrated travels, adventures, explorations, and discoveries for the last 50 years. Many of the works embraced in this compilation have hitherto been inaccessible to American readers, and the whole are now arranged, collected, and condensed in the most agreeable and lucid style by Bayard Taylor, one of the most celebrated travelers and popular writers of the age. It will make a splendid large octavo volume of 900 pages, neatly bound, and illustrated by numerous maps and engravings. The work will be issued in September, and will be sold to subscribers only. Moore, Wilstach, Keys, & Co. publishers, 25 West Fourth Street, Cincinnati. See advertisement in another column.

Harper's New Monthly for September is an excellent number. It contains another of those inevitable sketches—The Black Swamp—by Porter Crayon, with beautiful illustrations; Story of James P. Beckwith, also illustrated, giving a graphic sketch of his life and customs in the Far West; Passages of Eastern Travel, illustrated: three additional chapters of Dickens's new tale, Little Dorrit; and a great variety of other amusing and interesting matter. For sale at Hills Book Store—price twenty-five cents.

Congressional Convention.

Pursuant to call, the delegates, together with 3000 to 4000 persons met at the Court House in Elkhart, on Thursday last, to nominate a candidate for Congress. The Convention was called to order by Wm. Rockhill, of Allen county, Chairman of the Congressional Democratic Central Committee, and I. B. McDonald, of Whitley, and F. J. Clark, of Elkhart, were appointed temporary Secretaries.

On motion, a committee of one from each county, composed of J. P. Long, of Whitley, C. W. Seely, of Elkhart, John K. Kruzer, of Lagrange, C. Woolsey, of DeKalb, Dr. McConnell, of Steuben, Thos. Tigar, of Allen, S. E. Alvord, of Noble, and Wm. C. Graves, of Kosciusko, was appointed to report permanent officers for the Convention.

On motion, a committee of one from each county, composed of I. D. Nelson, of Allen, A. Work, of DeKalb, J. C. Clark, of Elkhart, W. C. Graves, of Kosciusko, C. B. Holmes, of Lagrange, A. Banta, of Noble, —Patterson, of Steuben, and I. B. McDonald, of Whitley, was appointed to report resolutions expressive of the sense of the Convention on the motion of Dr. Sturgis, Allen, Robert Leary, of Elkhart, D. B. Litchfield, of Steuben, W. W. Martin, of Noble, and R. J. Dawson, of DeKalb, were announced as candidates before the Convention; whereupon the roll was called for the first ballot, with the following result: whole number of votes 76; necessary to a choice, 39.

On the 10th ballot Hon. R. Lowry received 39 votes, Dr. Sturgis 22; R. J. Dawson 14. We published the ballot list last week.

Hon. Robert Lowry having received a majority of all the votes cast, was declared the nominee of the Convention, as the democratic candidate for Congress in the 10th District, and upon the motion of Dr. Sturgis, of Allen county, the nomination was then declared unanimous.

Loud calls were then made for Lowry, and as he ascended the stand the Court House shook with applause. Judge Litchfield, then the Convention, in a short speech, for the honor conferred upon him, and pledged his every exertion to make the Democratic flag from the dust in which it has trailed for two years, and carry it proudly on to victory. Dr. Sturgis, and Messrs. Dawson, Martin, and Litchfield followed, and elected his warm and untiring efforts to secure the election of the nominee.

S. J. Stoughton, of Noble county, was nominated by acclamation, as a candidate for Prosecuting Attorney for the 10th Judicial Circuit.

The committee on resolutions then reported the following, which were unanimously adopted: Resolved, That we hail with delight the nomination by the National Democracy of James Buchanan of Pennsylvania, and John C. Breckinridge, of Kentucky, as candidates for the Presidency of the United States, and that we enter into the pending contest with full confidence, and a determination to use our utmost exertions to secure their election.

Resolved, That our nominees for Governor and Lieutenant Governor, Willard and Hammond, and the Democratic State ticket, generally, are able and worthy men, and fully deserving of the enthusiastic support of the Democracy of this District.

Resolved, That the Platform of the National Convention, lately adopted in National Convention at Cincinnati, embodied the essential principles of the Democratic party, and meets with our warm and hearty approval.

Resolved, That we hail upon the so-called Republican party the foul imputation that the National Democracy favor the extension of slavery into free territory or have been in any way instrumental in producing the disturbance and taken place in the Territory of Kansas, but charge upon the leaders of that party that they have had a full share in fomenting and keeping up said disturbances, and with especial view to party advantage and party success.

Resolved, That we will cordially support the nominees of this Convention to represent the people in the next Congress, and will use honorable exertions to secure their triumphant election, will cheerfully sacrifice all our individual preferences for men, upon the altar of public welfare, and will go into the contest determined to give the nominee a majority worthy of the Democracy of the tenth District.

Resolved, That the Senate bill for the pacification of Kansas, passed by that body a few weeks since, and supported by the National Democrats and whigs of that body, is admirably calculated to answer the ends for which it was designed, and the opposition it has met with in the lower house of Congress, proves conclusively that the Republican majority in that body are not so settled in their opposition to the Kansas act during the pending Presidential contest.

On motion, a Congressional Central Committee, composed of one from each county, was appointed for the ensuing year, as follows: Dr. Martin, of Noble; C. W. Seely, of Elkhart; Wm. Rockhill, of Allen; S. W. Sprout, of De Kalb; R. W. Hardy, of Whitley; F. J. Clark, of Lagrange; W. C. Graves, of Kosciusko; and Dr. McConnell, of Steuben.

On motion it was Resolved, That all the Democratic papers of the District, and the Indianapolis Sentinel, Platform, and Volksblatt, be requested to copy the proceedings of the Convention.

Judicial District Convention.

Pursuant to a call of the District Committee a Convention of Delegates representing the Democrats in the Judicial District composed of the Counties of Adams and Allen, was held at the Court House in the City of Fort Wayne, on Wednesday, the 20th day of August, 1856.

The Convention was called to order by the Chairman of the District Committee, who stated the object of the convention; when JAMES B. SIMCOKE of Adams was called to the Chair, and BYRAM D. MINER of Allen appointed Secretary.

The Delegates appeared, produced their credentials, and took their seats.

On taking the chair, Judge W. reviewed the history of the different parties as they now exist, the odiousness of the Democratic party, and the expediency of the Democratic party in its adherence to the Constitution, and dwelling with regret upon the open war proclaimed against the laws by the opposition. He then urged upon the Convention the necessity of harmony and good will, by which, and united action, the flag of victory could alone be snatched from the hands of the disunion enemies who now drape in black over the unity of these States.

The list of delegates was then called; and the following persons answered to their names: [We omit the list of delegates, for want of room.]

On motion, a committee of one from each county, composed of I. D. Nelson, of Allen, A. Work, of DeKalb, J. C. Clark, of Elkhart, W. C. Graves, of Kosciusko, C. B. Holmes, of Lagrange, A. The Delegates appeared, produced their credentials, and took their seats.

On taking the chair, Judge W. reviewed the history of the different parties as they now exist, the odiousness of the Democratic party, and the expediency of the Democratic party in its adherence to the Constitution, and dwelling with regret upon the open war proclaimed against the laws by the opposition. He then urged upon the Convention the necessity of harmony and good will, by which, and united action, the flag of victory could alone be snatched from the hands of the disunion enemies who now drape in black over the unity of these States.

The list of delegates was then called; and the following persons answered to their names: [We omit the list of delegates, for want of room.]

On motion, a committee of one from each county, composed of I. D. Nelson, of Allen, A. Work, of DeKalb, J. C. Clark, of Elkhart, W. C. Graves, of Kosciusko, C. B. Holmes, of Lagrange, A. Banta, of Noble, —Patterson, of Steuben, and I. B. McDonald, of Whitley, was appointed to report resolutions expressive of the sense of the Convention on the motion of Dr. Sturgis, Allen, Robert Leary, of Elkhart, D. B. Litchfield, of Steuben, W. W. Martin, of Noble, and R. J. Dawson, of DeKalb, were announced as candidates before the Convention; whereupon the roll was called for the first ballot, with the following result: whole number of votes 76; necessary to a choice, 39.

On the 10th ballot Hon. R. Lowry received 39 votes, Dr. Sturgis 22; R. J. Dawson 14. We published the ballot list last week.

Hon. Robert Lowry having received a majority of all the votes cast, was declared the nominee of the Convention, as the democratic candidate for Congress in the 10th District, and upon the motion of Dr. Sturgis, of Allen county, the nomination was then declared unanimous.

Loud calls were then made for Lowry, and as he ascended the stand the Court House shook with applause. Judge Litchfield, then the Convention, in a short speech, for the honor conferred upon him, and pledged his every exertion to make the Democratic flag from the dust in which it has trailed for two years, and carry it proudly on to victory. Dr. Sturgis, and Messrs. Dawson, Martin, and Litchfield followed, and elected his warm and untiring efforts to secure the election of the nominee.

S. J. Stoughton, of Noble county, was nominated by acclamation, as a candidate for Prosecuting Attorney for the 10th Judicial Circuit.

The committee on resolutions then reported the following, which were unanimously adopted: Resolved, That we hail with delight the nomination by the National Democracy of James Buchanan of Pennsylvania, and John C. Breckinridge, of Kentucky, as candidates for the Presidency of the United States, and that we enter into the pending contest with full confidence, and a determination to use our utmost exertions to secure their election.

Resolved, That our nominees for Governor and Lieutenant Governor, Willard and Hammond, and the Democratic State ticket, generally, are able and worthy men, and fully deserving of the enthusiastic support of the Democracy of this District.

Resolved, That the Platform of the National Convention, lately adopted in National Convention at Cincinnati, embodied the essential principles of the Democratic party, and meets with our warm and hearty approval.

Resolved, That we hail upon the so-called Republican party the foul imputation that the National Democracy favor the extension of slavery into free territory or have been in any way instrumental in producing the disturbance and taken place in the Territory of Kansas, but charge upon the leaders of that party that they have had a full share in fomenting and keeping up said disturbances, and with especial view to party advantage and party success.

Resolved, That we will cordially support the nominees of this Convention to represent the people in the next Congress, and will use
